

Be not blasphemed

Hey guys, how's it going? .... And today let's talk about the lifestyle of the young wife.

The world is not going to blaspheme Christ and his word because you became a nurse or because you ran a small business with 2 locations. They won't speak harshly against the Word because you attended every social protest or lived in a prestigious neighborhood and threw glamorous parties. Why? Because that is what they do and love and live for. Sure, you may have used Jesus and christian rhetoric to get it but if they pay their money to the prosperity preachers, or bet on chance, they have a real shot at getting it too.

Salvation is supposed to produce change and exalt the virtues God desires and when a so-called changed life shows no evidence of those virtues, the bible is spoken ill of and reproached by the unbeliever. Wives and mothers who do not show consistently the marks of Christ upon their lives give rise to scoffers to blaspheme the word of God.

They'll blaspheme because you said you read His word, you said God changed your life and yet, you still work like them, you still overthrow your husbands authority like they do, you are wild and uncontrollable just like them. So apparently God isn't really able to change people. He can't actually MAKE anyone do anything. They will judge Him and the efficacy of his word by your life. And you have probably already experienced this when you lost your temper and went nuts. They will say "ugh, I thought you were a christian". Which is funny, especially since Paul tells us in 1 Corinthians 2 that he himself is judged of no man. For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him. They don't rightly know as we do but it's still no excuse.

Now this isn't necessarily your problem, the Lord will come with his holy saints To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him. But how shameful it would be that your lifestyle, which should show Christ exalted, is a reason why they dishonor the word of God.

Let this be your motivation, to join in the walk of many faithful, God-honoring women past and present, who are an odor of sweet smelling incense to our great God. When a woman's heart and actions align with God's design, she reflects the beauty of His creation and the transformative power of the gospel. This honors the Lord and can draw others to Him. Rather than succumbing to cultural pressures, the godly, submissive woman chooses to walk in obedience, trusting that God's way is best. As she seeks to glorify Him in all areas of life, including her relationships and conduct, she becomes a shining example of godly womanhood.

Become a woman committed to honoring God's Word, because you are not your own, you were bought with a price, bought that you may now do the will of the good Master. As you allow the Holy Spirit to shape and refine you, you will experience the joy and peace that come from living according to God's design. You won't be applauded, you may even suffer reproach but rather you than the word of God. Rather you suffer and bear upon your body the marks of the reproach of Christ rather than your disorderly life cause shame and reproach to fall upon the honor and sanctity of the Word of God.

What about you? Have you experienced the persecution Christ said would be yours as you live out Titus 2? Let me know down below in the comments section.

That's it for today guys...
